Family Offering by Standing Order ☐    Family Offering by Envelope ☐

Family Offering contributions go towards the running of the parish. The First Collection contributions pay the wages of the Priests in the Dublin Diocese.

The Diocesan Offices provide support services to our parish communities in areas such as child safeguarding, education and schools, repairs to buildings, financial management and human resources, including meeting our legal requirements under the Charities Act, communications, as well as training people to work in evangelisation and catechesis. The Share collection provides the financial support for all these services.
