

CHRISTMAS 2017 & NEW YEAR 2018

CHURCH OF ST. CRONAN
BRACKENSTOWN PARISH

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

I would like to wish you and your family a very happy Christmas and every blessing as the New Year begins. It is always a lovely time of the year when family and friends get together and celebrate the birth of Jesus. Our families come in all shapes and sizes and in August next year we will celebrate the gift of family as Pope Francis joins us for the World Meeting of Families.

At this time of the year we think about God becoming one of us. The only way that he could do this was through a family. For the Holy Family it was not an easy beginning. Earlier this year I visited Greccio where the first crib was created by St. Francis. He wanted to help us see the simple beginning of Jesus' life, but the crib there goes on to show the other events that immediately followed the birth, the visit of shepherds and kings, the slaughter of innocents and the escape into Egypt.

In our world where we continue to face homelessness and the tragedy of people dying on our streets, where the future all around us seems so uncertain, the fact that God has come into our lives gives us hope.

Because in the words of Bl. Oscar Romero "Christmas should awaken us to the reality that the face of Christ is in each person we greet, each friend with whom we shake hands, each beggar that asks for bread, each worker who ask for the right to organize and each campesino who goes looking for work at coffee-harvest time. If the person before us is Christ, how could we rob them of their rights? Everything that we do to this person before us, Christ will take as done to him. This is the meaning of Christmas – that Christ lives among us."

In the new year we begin soon, let us recognize the face of Christ in our family, friends, strangers and those who reach out to us.

With every blessing, Fr. Paul

WITH GRATEFUL APPRECIATION

At the 40th celebration we thanked the outgoing Parish Pastoral Council. I would like to thank Liam, Frank, Therese, Maryanne, Maureen, Declan, Mary and Bridie for the extraordinary work they did. Their leadership enabled the Parish to grow and they have left a good foundation for the new Pastoral Council to build on.

In particular I would like to wish Declan Colgan every blessing as he has been accepted and begun his programme of preparation to be a Permanent Deacon in the Diocese. This will take him four years of prayer, study and discernment before his ordination to the Permanent Diaconate. Please keep Declan, his wife Mary and their children in your prayers.

There are three members of staff here in St. Cronan's and I would like to thank them for the great work that they do.

Peter our Parish Pastoral Worker brings great enthusiasm to everything he does. He has a great skill at encouraging people and helping them to develop their skills and awareness of living their Christian vocation.

Louise our Secretary is the first person many people meet when they are making contact with the Parish. She has a great way of dealing with people and is extremely efficient in the administration of the Parish Office.

Christie our caretaker works in all weathers to keep the grounds and the Church so well maintained.

Parish Office and Finance: I would like to thank Tony and Paddy for their financial record keeping. To Bridge and her team who count the collections and to the various collectors and delivery teams. The Finance Committee who keep an eye on income and expenditure.

Church Maintenance and Setting: To our team of sacristans who make sure that every Liturgy is provided with what is needed. The team who look after the laundry and linens. To Colm, Margaret and Joan who keep the Church so clean and to Kristina who looks after the Pastoral Centre. To Maura whose creativity and skill at arranging the flowers is admired by all. To the Safeguarding Team.

Liturgy: To Nicola and our team of amazing Altar Servers. To Sarah, Andrea and the dedicated members of the Youth Choir. To Aileen and the ever committed Choir Members. To our Ministers of the Word and Eucharist. To the Family Mass Team especially in the work they put in at Christmas. The Baptism team and the new Funeral Ministry team. To the Adoration and Prayer Groups.

Parish Pastoral Centre: To the Management Committee, the hospitality team, the provider of the cakes for the weekday coffee mornings and to all the leaders of the groups. To John for looking after the Parish Pastoral Centre garden and flower beds.

NET Ministries Team: who worked in our Parish over the last six weeks and whose dedication and commitment to their faith made a deep impression on the young people they worked with.

Legion of Mary: who have several groups in the Parish and whose dedication to the shop in the porch provides a great service and a warm welcome to people coming into the Church.

Newsletter: To LPI who manage and print our newsletter and to the advertisers who make it possible. Please support their businesses and when you use them tell them you saw their advertisement in the Parish Newsletter.

Finally: To all of you for your support and encouragement throughout the year.

Thank you, Fr. Paul

A word of thanks and Good News

This year Fr. Joseph returned home to Kerala, India to take up a new appointment in his community's Retreat Centre. In his five years here he built up many good friendships and helped people through his kindness, celebration of the Sacraments and his willingness to listen and follow up on people's life situations. We thank him for his ministry and witness and know that in his new role he will bring a wealth of experience.

Since he has left, we have had to make reductions to the timetable for a period during the summer. I would like to thank you for your co-operation with these changes and also for your kind words of support and friendship, especially during challenging times this year.

In early January we will welcome Fr. Bibin Jacob Muckadackal, C.S.T. It has taken some time to process his visa due to new regulations in the Dept. of Justice here. Now that these have been satisfied he will soon be with us. For the last number of years he has worked on the Youth Animation Team and has worked with young people on Retreats. He has good pastoral experience and he is looking forward to his time with us. Archbishop Martin has given him a two year appointment with us. As he prepares to make the journey to Ireland I pray that he will have a safe journey.

Fr. Paul

Brackenstown Bible Study 2018

In January 2017 we studied the very informative 23 week Scripture Study course "The Bible Timeline; The Story of Salvation" This is the foundational study in The Great Adventure Bible Study Series that has helped hundreds of thousands of Catholics learn to read the Bible.

During 2018 we will study Matthew: The King and His Kingdom, a Catholic Bible study that brings the history of Christ to life through St. Matthew's Gospel. You will see Jesus as the awaited Messiah who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven. The study runs for a total of 24 weeks, there will be 14 classes in Spring 2018 and 10 classes in Autumn 2018. The class size will be limited to 40 people, 38 people have already booked so there are only two remaining places. To register for the study call Louise at 01-8401188 or via email brackenstown@gmail.com.

Spring classes Monday evenings from 7.30 to 9.00 p.m commencing 22 /01/18 in St Cronan's Parish Pastoral Centre

Course Cost: €20.00 to cover the cost of the DVDs & the study book

Reverend Fathers, Canon Deane, Fellow Parishioners

1977 was an eventful year. To give a few examples, Apple sold their first computer, Concord flew its first passengers, Elvis died, but most importantly, this parish church was blessed and dedicated to St Cronan.

No parish event just happens. Every occasion needs to be discussed, planned and then put in place. All this takes time and effort. With this in mind, on behalf of the incoming Parish Pastoral Council, I'd like to thank Liam and the members of the outgoing Council for their commitment and work on your behalf over the last 7 years. During that time a number of initiatives have come to fruition, which the parish community now enjoy.

You, the parishioners, are this parish. You are its lifeblood. Without your constant support, whether it be spiritual, physical or financial, this parish would not have evolved. We on the Pastoral Council are here to listen to your needs and concerns and, in turn, involve the whole parish in response to these requests. As we look to begin our term of office we ask you to remember us in your prayers, and to discuss with us how we will face the start of the next forty years together.

I'd like to thank those who prepared tonight's liturgy, which we hope you found both spiritually nourishing and a cause for reflection, and not forgetting those who prepared the refreshments which await us in the Parish Centre.

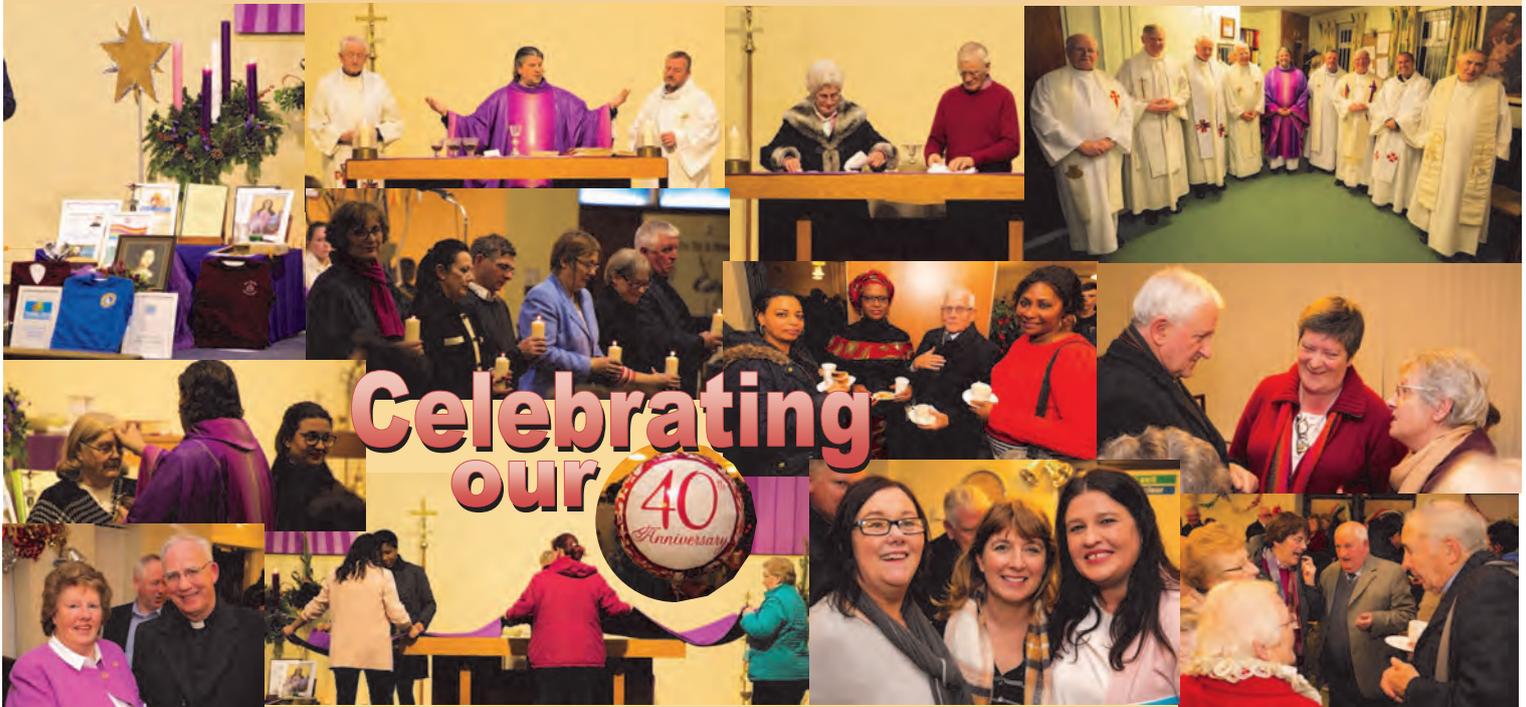

Thanks to the former priests of the parish, many of whom are here with us tonight, for the part they played in the development of the parish over the last 40 years, and also to thank Canon Robert for the close links which both our parishes enjoy.

The new council has only been in existence a couple of weeks, but already we realise just how much we depend on Fr Paul and the parish team for their support, counsel and guidance, and we thank them for that. I've no doubt we will need their ongoing assistance over the coming years.

After Mass we would be delighted if you would join us in the Parish Centre. And finally, to mark our 40th anniversary, a commemorative bookmark containing our parish prayer, will be distributed as you leave the church.

Thank you.

Willie Curtis, Parish Pastoral Council

A note from NET Ministries Team

Happy Christmas! It feels like only yesterday we were meeting Fr Paul and visiting St. Cronan's parish for the very first time. The thoughts and emotions we had are still fresh in our minds: feeling so welcomed by the community, excited for the opportunities, and hopeful for the ministry. Now, 6 weeks, later we look back on our time in the Swords area, feeling very grateful that our expectations were not only met, but exceeded.

While living in Brackenstown, we did retreats at several schools, including St. Cronan's, Loreto, Holy Family, St. Finian's, and Colaiste Choilm. The schools and the students were all great and we loved getting to know the youth and sharing about Jesus through activities, dramas, and talks.

At the end of the retreats, we invited the youth to attend our junior and senior youth groups in the Parish Centre where we played games, shared about our lives and the faith, as well as just spending time chatting and eating pizza. On average, our senior youth group has had about 10 participants and our junior youth group has had about 25 participants. And we are very excited to say that we had 46 attendants, including volunteers at Our Christmas party this past Tuesday!!!!!! We really appreciate the help with youth groups that we've received from Anita, Chiara, Sarah, Sr Julie and Fr Paul!!

We were also able to participate in the parish life by speaking about NET at Masses, playing music, writing for the parish newsletter and most recently by attending the beautiful 40th Anniversary Mass. During our stay here, so many parishioners were saying hello to us, asking about our ministry, and wishing us well. We all felt very welcomed and supported.

Thank you so much for an incredible 6 weeks here; for your welcome, support, and prayers. We pray that God will bless you as you prepare for the celebration of the birth of Jesus!! Please keep the team in your prayers, especially for safety as we travel home to visit our families this Christmas. God bless!!

World Meeting of Families Icon

Introduction to the Icon of the Holy Family

Pope Francis encourages families to look at or 'gaze' at the icon of the Holy Family. Why? The word 'icon' means an image. But it is more than a picture or photograph. When we read the bible with reverence we are not just reading words, we are already praying. It is the same with an icon. When we look on it with reverence - when we 'gaze' on it - we are praying. God is speaking to us through the images and we are responding.

If you would like your family to spend a little time with the icon here are three simple steps.

1. When you get home from Christmas Mass or at another moment that suits gather the family for a few minutes.
2. Pass around the icon and offer the explanation (below).
3. After you have finished this ask one family member to read the family prayer with the icon.

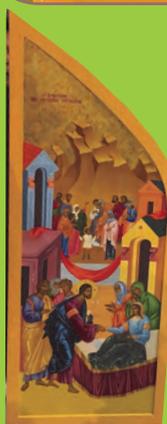

Explanation of the Holy Family Icon

The angels on the outside - This icon of the Holy Family is shaped a bit like a house with a double door. On the outside of each door there is an angel. Michael on the left, Gabriel on the right. We remember the prayer from our childhood. 'O angel of God, my guardian dear.' Angels represent God's desire to protect us, our home and our family. When we pray to the angels we pray for God's protection. The words at the bottom of the door mean 'The Joy of Love' - the message to us from Pope Francis about family.

The Holy Family at the centre - When we open up the doors we see in the centre the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph gathered around the table. They are sharing a meal and celebrating the Passover, a Jewish religious festival remembering God's goodness. Like all families they had experiences of joys and sorrows. They were once refugees in another country, fleeing the violence of King Herod. This image of the Holy Family is very similar in form to another icon - one of the Blessed Trinity. This reminds us that God is like a family, and that family is the place where the love of God is experienced through the love we have for one another.

Family stories from the gospels at either side - On either side of the Holy Family there are images from the Gospels, showing Jesus' care for marriage and his deep compassion for those living with the burdens of family life. The image on the left depicts a story from the gospel of St Mark. Jesus brings back to life the daughter of a man called Jarius. The image on the right is from the wedding feast at Cana, a story from St. John's gospel. Here Jesus reaches out to the newly married couple in a moment of need.

Our Family New Year's Resolutions for 2018

On New Year's Eve or New Year's Day why not take an opportunity to look back together on the year gone by and look forward to the year ahead.

Here are five easy steps for having a family chat that can result in up to three New Year's resolution that the whole family can commit to for the year ahead. Use this moment to foster communications and make decisions that build family life. Gather the family around the table or any place where you can talk to each other. One person leads the conversation by asking the questions below - give about 5-6 minutes to each question. Ensure every person in the family has a chance to speak.

STEP 1 - Looking back on 2017 - is there a family moment that I remember?

- A fun moment...
- A lovely moment...
- A sad moment...
- A moment I'll never forget!..

STEP 2 - Looking forward to 2018 - what would I love for us as a family?

- Something we might do...
- Something we might stop doing...

STEP 3 - Is there anything in what Pope Francis says here about families that strikes me?

"Always remember to say please, thanks and sorry - doing this in the good times helps in the bad times"

"If anyone has a success let's all celebrate - if anyone is in trouble let's all help"

"We all need our own space - let's respect that for each other"

"Practice forgiving - let's be slow to judge one another"

"Listen to one another's stories - especially across the generations"

"The family that prays together stays together"

STEP 4 - In light of what we have all chatted about is there one resolution I'd love us to make for the coming year?

- Can we make our suggestions?
- Can we list these?

STEP 5 - From all we have heard which resolutions can we all sign up to?

- Can we write these up in simple, concrete language on our family New Year's Resolutions sheet?

Download the sheet from the link on the Parish Website: www.brackenstown-parish.com

Try to keep the resolutions concrete, so that you will know whether they are done or not. Keep them realistic so that you have a good chance of success. An example of a concrete, realistic resolution might be - We will celebrate each birthday in 2018 by having a meal together during the week of that birthday.

- Where will we place the sheet so that we can all see it in our house?

St. Cronan's Parish Pastoral Centre

The Pastoral Centre has been in operation for two years and it has really brought a whole new life to the Parish. There is a Management Committee who oversee the maintenance, contracts and general running, while the bookings for use are made through the Parish Office. Below is a list of what takes place and who you can contact for more information.

On Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays as well as the 3rd Sunday of the month we have tea/coffee after Mass. It's a great time to meet people and if you haven't come in, make it a New Years resolution!

EPIPHANY GIFTS

You are invited to bring along any unwanted Christmas gifts until 10th January.

These gifts will then be passed onto Alice Leahy's Trust, a day-care facility for the homeless based in the Iveagh Trust Buildings. The kind of things that are useful are: chocolates, sweets, scented candles, toiletries, scarves, gloves etc.

Bring them to the crib in the Church and the Pastoral Council will pass them on. Thank you.

The Finance Committee wish to express our gratitude to all who supported the Parish Finances so generously in 2017. We would also like to thank all those who have requested to be included in the new envelope system for the two collections at weekend Masses. As mentioned there are substantial potential benefits for the Parish if the donor is an income tax payer. We will be ordering the 2018 envelope boxes in early January. We therefore invite those who wish to avail of the system to return a form as soon as possible. Thank you for your support.

The next edition of the Parish Newsletter will be issued on the weekend of 7th/8th January

Any items for publication must be in the Parish Office by the Wednesday lunch-time 3rd January 2018
